SONG LYRICS

There's a place where we can go, to get away, and you don't even have to pay.
And it's down the road, a-ways
Back in yesterday.
Yes it's back in yesterday.

Here, the sun never goes away.
So you can play, as long as you choose to stay.
It's down the road, a-ways
Back in yesterday.
Oh yes, it's back in yesterday.

You've been worrying, about the payments on the car.
You've been hurrying, to get as far, as you can.
But life was meant to be, just another adventure for you and me.
And it's down the road, back in yesterday.

Now my friend, walk this way, and don't go astray, or you will be too late.
It's down the road, a-ways
Back in yesterday.

I think you're almost there.
Take another sip of wine.
Lose all your cares.
You can leave your troubles, far behind.
Now, sit down.
Take those photos off the shelf.
Oh yes, you're in yesterday, my friend.
My friend, enjoy yourself.
It's down the road, in yesterday.

Back in Yesterday.
