SONG LYRICS

[VERSE 1]

It was here, where I met you my love
Where I first kissed you my love,
It was here.
It was here, where you touched me my love,
And taught me, my love, to loose my fear.

[BRIDGE 1]

And truth, made it so easy that we didn't even have to try, my love.
And remember, how easy it was to fly, my love.

[CHORUS]

But we took a fall,
And despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We can fly again.
Yeah we took a fall,
But despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We can fly again.

[VERSE 2]

Well it was here, where we first believed,
And dared to dream,
It all started right here.
It was here, where you told me my love,
That you'd never let go of my love,
You told me right here.

[BRIDGE 2]

And honesty, came so easy that we didn't even have to try, my love.
And remember, how easy it was to fly, my love.

[CHORUS]

But we took a fall,
And despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We can fly again.
Yeah we took a fall,
But despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We can fly again.

[VERSE 3]

Now it's here, where I face you my love,

And embrace you my love,
And I'm doing it right here.
And it's here, where I promise you my love,
That the best is yet to be my love,
And I'm saying it right here.

[BRIDGE 3]

And our faith will make it so easy that we don't even have to try, my love.
And soon, we'll find ourselves flying again, my love.

[CHORUS]

But should we fall,
Despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We'll fly again.
And if we fall,
Despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We'll just fly again.
But should we fall,
Despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We'll fly again.
And if we fall,
Despite it all,
I know, yes I know,
We'll fly again.

The End
