SONG LYRICS

Now my darling, if you're unhappy
You've been searching for a heaven or a home.
Then my darling, start relaxing,
Passion's knocking at your door.

In your eyes I see
Rivers flowing
Over lands I've yet to roam.
Tonight destiny
Oh, it's telling you and me
Together, we can outride the storm.

The stars will light the way.
And the clouds, will be our bed.
The rain will taste like wine.
And there'll be no end of time.
In our world.
In our world.

Now my darling, my heart--my soul I'm giving you.
I'm offering shelter from the cold.
If you're searching
Or, Honey, you've been wanting
Tonight, you have me to hold.

The stars will light the way.
And the clouds, will be our bed.
The rain will taste like wine.
And there'll be no end of time.
In our world.
In our world.
