SONG LYRICS

Now I just want to talk to you
So we can find out what we're going to do.
Cause I don't think you truly understand
How quickly things can change inside the heart of a man.

"Yeah it only takes a split second for everything to change in the heart of a man."

Because we've only been together for a little while
You think I can't see behind your pretty smile.
But I'm warning you woman
That no matter how lovely the road
It only takes a moment for everything to turn cold inside the heart of a man.

"It can happen in the blink of an eye—everything can change in the heart of a man."

Quit your lying, woman
Stop trying to rig the game.
Cause if you don't, things will have to change.
And even though I want you so, so badly
I can't let you bring the clouds
That will start the rain all over again inside the heart of this man.

"It's not easy, but I can't let it happen to me all over again."

So if you really want to be with me
Just look in my eyes and say you believe.
Then hold on tight and do the best you can
And as long as you do girl
You don't ever have to worry about anything ever changing in the heart of this man.

Quit your lying, woman
Stop trying to rig the game.
Cause if you don't, things will have to change.
And even though I want you so, so badly
I can't let you bring the clouds
That will start the rain all over again inside the heart of this man.

So if you really want to be with me
Just look in my eyes and say you believe.
Then hold on tight and do the best you can
And nothing will ever change inside the heart of this man.
