SONG LYRICS

[VERSE 1]

Now girl you've made a life, of going from man to man.
And you tell yourself the reason why, is 'cause they don't understand.
Well, that's not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.

[VERSE 2]

Now I know you taught yourself, how to survive.
But now you excuse yourself, for living a lie.
Oh, sister, that's not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.
I tell you it's not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.

[VERSE 3]

Now brother I'm your friend, and I won't lead you astray.
I look in your eyes and see your heart, but your heart's got nothing to say.
Man, that's not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.
Brother it's just not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.

[BRIDGE 1]

'Cause when it's all said and done, you've got nowhere to run.
And you'll find yourself alone, seeking shelter from the storm.
And asking why, oh why.
And where did I go wrong, 'cause now, I'm standing alone.
And you know what?
It's just not good enough.
And asking why, oh why.
And where did I go wrong, 'cause now, I'm standing alone.
And you know what?
It's just not good enough.

[VERSE 4]

So if you find yourself, spinning out of control.
And you're settling for less, because you're afraid to let go.
Oh, my friend, that's not good enough.
No, it's just not good enough.
I'm here to tell you it's not good enough.
Please believe me when I say, it's not good enough.

[BRIDGE 2]

'Cause when it's all said and done, we've got nowhere to run.

And we'll find ourselves alone, seeking shelter from the storm.
And asking why, oh why.
And where did I go wrong, 'cause now, I'm standing alone.
And you know what?
It's just not good enough.
I'm asking why, oh why.
And where did I go wrong, 'cause now, I'm standing alone.
And I tell you what,
It's just not good enough.

[CHORUS]

So work as hard as you can.
Or it's just not hard enough.
Walk as fast as you can.
Or it's just not fast enough.
Climb as high as you can.
Or it's just not high enough.
Be the better man.
Or it's just not good enough.
