SONG LYRICS

When it feels like the dealer's always cheating
Do the best with the hand you've got
But just keep on playing.
And when it feels like the road you're on is always bending
Just look inside your heart and feel the fire
And keep it burning.

Force can only break us
And love can only save us
So keep on loving.
Hatred is the cancer
And love is the only answer.
So keep on loving.

No matter how long it takes, just keep on loving.

If you think there's too much raining
Remember all the thirsty children 'round the world and be thankful that they're drinking
And keep on smiling.

Force can only break us
And love can only save us
So keep on loving.
Hatred is the cancer
To which love is the only answer.
So keep on loving.

Just keep on loving.

I hear a voice in the thunder
And I see a light in the distance
I quietly await the question
As I feel the presence washing over me.
Washing over me.
Washing over me.

Sometimes it feels like no one's listening
But that's OK, that's just fine, I keep trying
And I keep on singing.

Force can only break us
But love can only save us
So keep on loving.
Hatred is the cancer
To which love is the only answer.

So keep on loving.

No matter how long
Just keep on loving.

Come on with me and stay strong
And keep on loving.

Don't give up
You just keep on loving.

I tell you we ain't got far to go
If we just keep on loving.

Just keep on loving.
