SONG LYRICS

You told me last summer
That we had to end.
You said it wasn't like it had been
Not like it had been
Last summer.

You told me last summer
That we were through.
And there was nothing I could do
Nothing I could do
Last summer.

You took away my faith.
But when I hear your voice
I can't help but pray
For another day
Just like I did last summer.

You called me this winter
And said you'd been feeling so cold.
You wanted me to hold you
And never let go
Just like I did last summer.

You took away the sun
But when I look in your eyes
It feels like we've just begun
Just like it did last summer.

I told you last night
That I'm so glad to be your man.
I'll do everything I can
To understand.
Just like I did last summer.
