

YOU AND ME GIRL

by Mark Taylor

Copyright © © 2004 by Mark Taylor
All Rights Reserved

SONG LYRICS

Here I am
Walking in the past again.
Thinking about you and me girl
And the life we planned.
Thinking about all the promises we made
That we were too young to keep
And how I told you someday I'd be back to take you with me.

It was supposed to be me and you girl
Our story now untold.
Yes, it was supposed to be me and you girl
To the end of the road.
It was supposed to be me and you girl.

As my life unfolds
In ways I never dreamed
Through good times and bad
I swear it seems
I return to yesterday
When we played outside
And how I told you someday I'd be back and make you my wife.

It was supposed to be me and you girl
Our children forever unborn.
Yes, it was supposed to be just you and me girl
Against the storm.
Just you and me girl.

And Honey, even though I don't know where you are today
I hope you think of me, from time-to-time, in the same old way.

Ah, it was gonna' be me and you girl
Our story now forever untold.
Yes, it was gonna' be me and you girl
To the end of the road.
You and me girl.